

Dr. Marvin Marshall

The international Discipline Expert

"Your excellent presentation, so eloquently delivered, made a leadership conference that will be long remembered and discussed. Thank you very much for helping teachers look freshly upon a major issue."

--Patricia A. Romandetto,
Superintendent
Community School
District 3
New York City Board of Education

"Thank you for delivering the keynote address at our California Character Education Conference. As you are well aware, the conference attendees responded enthusiastically to your message. Your suggestions are also applicable for adults who are interested in developing good family habits and attitudes."

--Joseph Maloney, Ph.D.
Executive Director
Center for Youth Citizenship

Marvin Marshall's landmark education book, "Discipline without Stress® - How Teachers and Parents Promote Responsibility & Learning," and his multi-award-winning parenting book, "Parenting without Stress® - How to Raise Responsible Kids While Keeping a Life of Your Own," are used in schools and homes around the world.

His system is unique. He clearly demonstrates how to motivate without using external manipulations. His system is highly effective and reduces stress.

His presentations include his BLOG topics:
How to discipline without stress, how to increase learning, how to become more effective, how to increase responsibility, how to improve relationships, and how to become a better parent.

People who use his proactive and totally noncoercive approach find it life-changing.

He has given keynotes and seminars in 25 countries on five continents.

A SAMPLING OF COMMENTS

"This is the best year I have had in my 25 years of being a principal. Discipline has not been a problem this year. Students monitor their own behavior and make responsible choices without the use of punishments or rewards."
--Phelps Wilkins, Principal, Eisenhower Elementary School, Mesa, AZ

"By using your methodology, we have transformed our school. Our discipline referrals have been cut by more than half from the year before. The climate is positive, of togetherness, and of cooperation. We are forever grateful for your insight in helping us to renew our dedication to teaching."
--Esther Severy, Principal, McFadden Intermediate School, Santa Ana, CA

"For the first time in many years, we had advice we could walk back into the classroom and actually use the next day. You helped us realize the importance of using discipline as a learning tool rather than as a purely punitive measure."
--Gretchen Fleming, Principal, Pattonville High School, Maryland Heights, MO

"More important than the reduction in referrals is the understanding of our students that behavior is their responsibility. They have also come to understand that they have choices they can make when faced with real life situations. Our staff now feels they can spend more time on teaching and less time on discipline issues."
--Alfredo Reyes, Vice-Principal, Sierra Vista Middle School, La Puente, CA
